OUTLINES.

The Presidential nominees met in Chicago last night at the fourth annual banquet of the Chicago Association of Commerce. Bryan and Taft both delivered non-partisan speeches and were given an enthusiastic demonstration——The expedition in search of a Spanish vessel said to contain a quantity of gold, which sailed from Philadelphia on September 20th met with disaster in a hurricane off Watling Island. They were picked up by a Norwegian steamer and brought safely back home——Bryan held a conference in Chicago yesterday with the leaders of the campaign at which the work for the closing weeks of the campaign were arranged. He says the Democratic tide is growing stronger every day——The Government Agricultural Department yesterday gave out its report on condition and yield of the grain crops——It has been decided that the Atlantic battleship fleet shall come direct to Hampton Roads on its return to America. There it will be reviewed by the President——Indications are that Brown was elected Governor of Georgia yesterday by a majority between 60,000 and 80,000. The franchise amendment to the constitution was carried——9 revolution took place in Crete yesterday a provisional local Government formed and the island declared annexed to Greece——District Attorney Jerome gets mad because Justice Mills will not move the Thaw trial to New York county and retires from the case——The evidence in the court-martial of Lieutenant Evans was concluded. That on the question of intoxication is considered favorable to him——Kern, the Democratic candidate for Vice President, made two speeches at Winston-Salem yesterday. His chief topic was denunciation of trusts and of the Republican party for fostering them. He said if Taft were elected he would be but a "sub-President——Spontaneous combustion from dust caused the wrecking and burning yesterday of a huge grain elevator at Richford, Vt. Eight persons were killed——New York Markets: Money on call easy at 1 to 1 1-2 per cent., ruling rate, closing bid and offered 1 1-4, time loans steady. Spot cotton closed quiet, 10 points up, middling uplands 9.15, middling gulf 9.40. Flour quiet but steady Wheat steady No. 2 red 1.06 to 1.09 1-2 elevator. Corn spot easy, No. 2 84 elevator nominal. Oats easy mixed 52 to 5v. Rosin quiet. Turpentine quiet at 38 3-4.

Austria got ahead of Bulgaria after all in the matter of annexing Bosnia and Herzegovinia.

As yet the public has not been given the date of the postmark on that Taft-Vorys letter.

Have you been to see the registrar of your precinct yet? If not go at once. There is danger in delay.

With the leaders of both parties so well pleased with the way things are going the rank and file should be content also.

Greensboro people are preparing for a big time during the meeting of the Peace Congress. We hope they won't be disappointed.

From the haste in which the Taft Republicans dropped Foraker it looks like they were waiting for a good excuse to do so.

A case of stumping and being stumped—Taft is stumping the country and the tariff question stumps him every time he tackles it.

It is strange that no denial of the Roosevelt-Harriman letters has come from the Whate House. Loeb seems to be neglecting his duties.

Roosevelt is pleading for a Republican Congress so that Taft's hands won't be tied. He wants to do that tying himself.

Of course some Republicans are going to pretend to think Chairman Mack's attack was caused by despondency over the political situation.

The Times-Union, speaking of the rumor that Roosevelt would take the stump, says he had already stumped his toe and spilled what little chance of election Taft had.

Haskell ought to have more consideration for the American people than to be trying to force Roosevelt to write some more campaign speeches.

The Charlotte Board of Aldermen has settled the liquor prescription question at last by allowing druggists to fill prescriptions, provided not more than a pint is sold to any one person in a day. It was a long and a hot fight.

If Longworth had not been so promptly taken off the stump by Roosevelt, he would probably by this time be hinting at the latter becoming Dictator or Emperor after Taft's eight years in the White House.

DEMOCRATS ACTIVE

Vigorous Campaign in Eastern Carolina Counties in Now Being Waged by Speakers.

OVERMAN AND BICKETT

Number of Appointments Announced Yesterday—Cook and Godwin in Sixth District—Pender and Duplin Canvass.

In nearly every county in Eastern North Carolina this week, under the auspices of State, district and county Democratic headquarters, a vigorous campaign is being waged for the success of the ticket in November and reports from the field by letter and telegraph yesterday were to the effect that much good is bing accomplished.

Both Senator Lee S. Overman and Hon. T. W. Bickett, nominee for Attorney General, were yesterday assigned a number of appointments in the East. Senator Overman will open next Monday at Enfield, speaking Tuesday at Trenton, Wednesday at Bayboro, Thursday at Goldsboro, Friday at Wentworth, Rockingham county; then the following week at Snow Hill Monday, October 19th, Jacksonville, Onslow county, October 20th, Elizabethtown, October 21st, Wilmington, Thursday night, October 22nd, Maxton Friday, October 23rd, and Columbus county, October 24th. Mr. Bickett is this week in Durham, Graham and Orange counties but will next week open at Wilson Tuesday night, Macclesfield, Wednesday, Tarboro Wednesday night, Ormondsville, Friday, 16th, Snow Hill, Friday night, Monroe, Friday night 23rd, Wadesboro, Saturday October 24th, Hamlet, the same night, Burgaw, Monday, October 26th, Salemburg, October 27th, Duplin county, October 28th, Onslow county, October 29th, Johnston county, October 30th; Dunn, October 31st, and Duke, the same night.

Chadbourn, N. C. October 7.—Hon. H. L. Cook, Presidential elector for this district, was here today from a tour of speaking in this county where he found the party in good shape. He has had good crowds and it is safe to predict that Columbus will give a larger majority this year than two years ago. The party leaders here are active and the voters interested. Bryan and Kitchin Clubs have been formed in every precinct and much interest is manifested. Everybody feels hopeful of Bryan's election and believe that Kitchin will be elected by 60,000 majority.

Mr. Cook has made several changes in his itinerary. He speaks at Fairmont, Friday, October 9th, at noon instead of at Clarkton; Rowland, Monday, October 19th; Lumberton, Tuesday, October 20th, at night; Bladenboro, Wednesday, 21st, at 2 P. M.; Hope Mills, Thursday, 29th, at night; Parkton, Friday, 30th, at night. Where there is a conflict with appointments previously made these are stricken out.

Fairmont, Oct. 7.—Hon. H. L. Godwin spoke at Rowland Monday night and again here last night and will be at Bladenboro today and Abbottsburg tomorrow. He had large crowds both here and at Rowland. Robeson is in good shape and will give 2,000 majority, notwithstanding wild reports to the contrary.

Burgaw, N. C., Oct. 7.—Hon. H. D. Williams, of Kenansville, Democratic elector from this district, and his Republican opponent, Major George E. Butler, of Clinton, addressed the voters here yesterday in joint debate. Mr. Williams led off with a speech of 45 minutes, discussing the main issues of the campaign with dignity and ability. He charged the Republicans with a high protective tariff, showing its burden upon the consumers and taxpayers and showed beyond a doubt that the trusts were the logical results of this iniquitous tariff system. The Republicans themselves were now bound to admit the righteousness of this Democratic position. Major Butler in reply ignored this part of the argument and insisted on washing the dirty linen of Republican office holders in Sampson county, which was neither to the stomach nor to the taste of his Pender audience. Mr. Butler referred with pride to the iniquitous public school law which he introduced in the Senate in 1897.

He justified the election of Abe Middleton as assistant door-keeper of the house in 1897, saying that while he was not a member of that body that year, that under the facts he thought it preferable to have Abe, a negro, in that position to a one legged man who claimed to be a Confederate soldier, but who, upon investigation, it was found, had fallen off a train and broken his leg, saying that it was better to have a negro than a drunken tramp. They meet again tonight at Watha, in this county, and tomorrow at Wallace.

Pender county will be all right as our people will never return to negro rule. Butler made a characteristic speech, misrepresenting every thing he referred to. Williams was in the best of shape, and held the undivided attention of every one. Butler is no match for the brilliant young eastern orator.

Solicitor Rodolph Duffy will address the voters of Maple Hill and vicinity on Saturday, October 10th. All are invited to hear him.

PREPARING FOR ELKSFEST

Children's Parade to be Distinctive Feature of the Week—Many Committees Named—Elks Lodges of Other Cities Invited.

The first meeting of the Committee on Children's Playground Fund Parade, which takes place Elksfest Week, Tuesday, November 3rd, at 3 P. M., was held yesterday afternoon in the parlors of The Orton. This parade will be an open affair to be participated in by, not only members of the order of the Elks, but by the general public as well.

With this in view, Exalted Ruler Leitner made the appointments as follows:

Committee on Entire Parade—T. B. Carroll, Chairman, Frank Lamb, P. F. Wells, C. B. Rehder, J. L. Solomon, James Cowan, S. J. Davis, J. F. Woolvin, Ed. David, W. W. Blair, A. M. Prince, Julius Taylor, Jos. Thompson, L. Stein.

The committee has power to select sub-committees from the general public. The committee decided yesterday to invite the superintendent of schools and the principals of the schools to form a committee and take charge of the school children's division of the pageant. An effort will be made to have the schools dismissed on that day at 1 P. M., and to have them take part as Schools in the parade. The schools will also be invited to build and decorate floats—the horses, platforms etc., being provided by the committee. It was decided to offer prizes for the school turning out the largest number of pupils, prizes for the school originating the best float, and for the best marching device. A committee of seven ladies was named to take charge of the decorated baby coaches and go-carts division. On acceptance of the committee, their names will be published.

Invitations were extended yesterday to 68 Elks lodges in the vicinity, to send a delegation to participate in the Elks' Dress Parade division of the parade November 3rd. Superintendent of construction, J. E. Hatch, will build a magnificent float in purple and white for this section.

A committee of military men was appointed to arrange for a military section. Messrs. W. W. Blair, Frank Lamb, and T. B. Carroll were named a committee to urge the merchants to build floats and put them in the industrial section of the parade. A committee was also appointed to see what could be done in the way of a secret society division. Grand Marshal Carroll will announce his aides in the line of march in this parade in a few days.

The Music Committee, D. R. Foster, chairman, was instructed to secure, if possible, four bands for this parade. The committee meets again tonight, and next Tuesday night, at Elks Temple to further perfect plans.

The tent that will be brought to the city for the Elks Circus will be 100x200 feet, this being about the size of the one used by Cole Bros. In addition to the circus on Friday night, November 6th, there will be given a burlesque public Elks initiation ceremony. Mr. James Cowan, chairman, and P. F. Wells, vice-chairman, selected the members of the Elks to take part in this comical affair, the same being, T. B. Carroll, C. L. Brown, I. W. Solomon, Julius Taylor, H. J. Gerken, W. W. Blair, C. B. Rehder, Louis Goodman, E. E. Levy, Fred Brock, Joe Schad, John Sweeny, D. B. Sinclair, W. L. Smith, Chas. Southerland, Oscar Morris, M. B. Mintz Ben Jackson, B. F. King, Henry Gieschen, Joe Thompson, D. N. Chadwick, Jr., John Niggle and H. M. Crosswell.

POLICE UNIFORM CONTRACT

Awarded Yesterday by Committee to D. Klein & Bro., of Philadelphia.

The Police Committee of the Board of Aldermen, composed of the Mayor, chairman, and Messrs. W. A. French, Jr., and K. W. Jewell, yesterday afternoon awarded the contract for the new Fall and Winter police uniforms to D. Klein & Bro., of Philadelphia, who were below their nearest competitors by a good margin on the suit. The price named is $14.75 for suit of coat, vest and trousers, same to be made of Charlottesville 16-ounce broadcloth according to specifications submitted by the committee and with guarantee as to fit and tailoring. A telegram was received from the house last night, stating that a man would be sent to Wilmington at once to take the measures of the officers. The style of the Winter uniform will be single-breasted coats with either braided standing or turn down collar.

Other bidders for the contract were M. C. Lilley Co., Columbus, Ohio; Jacob Reed's Sons & Co., Philadelphia; J. M. Solky & Co., A. Shrier and Munson & Co., of Wilmington. Something like $225 was saved to the city by calling for new bids over those received last week and there is a saving of $5 per suit over the price paid last year, this indicating that prices of clothing are off on account of the depression.

THE NEW YORKS WIN

Averted Possibility of Triple Tie if Defeated Yesterday and Beat Chicago Today.

SCORE WAS SEVEN TO TWO

Contest With Chicago Today Unequal in Baseball History—American League Finals With Brace of Double-headers—Notes.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Polo Grounds, New York, Oct. 7.—In the final game of the Boston series and the last of the regular schedule, the New York team this afternoon averted the possibility of a triple tie of the three leaders, which, in case of defeat today and victory over Chicago tomorrow, would have necessitated a specially arranged series for determining the pennant winner and would have held almost endless possibilities.

Today's victory by the score of 7 to 2 makes tomorrow's contest with Chicago unique in baseball history. In it is concentrated the intensest interest of enthusiasts throughout the country, and all the indications are that the contest will prove a spectatular climax to a season whose kaleidoscopic changes have held attention to the very last minute. The fact that the management througnout the afternoon was fairly deluged with telegraphic and telephone calls for reservations indicates what may be expected in the way of crowds tomorrow.

The first inning with the Boston team today gave the New York followers a chill; but the home team soon got into form and from then on, it was merely practice in preparation for tomorrow.

The feature of the game was McCormick's phenomenal one-hand catch of a long fly, which he held by reaching far out over a bleacher fence.

Boston took the lead in the first inning. Becker bunted safely and Bates singled to left. Brown fanned but Becker and Bates made a double steal. McGann tripled scoring both runners. Sweeney fouled out to Tenney and McGann was caught off third on Dahlen's bunt.

New York came back with one in the second. Donlin was safe on Hannifan's error. Seymour put Donlin at second on his out at first. McCormick singled, scoring Donlin. New York took the lead in the third. Ames singled to right; Tenney singled to centre, sending Ames to third and reaching second on the throw in; Herzog out, Hannifan to McGann, Ames scoring. Bresnahan hit to Dahlen who threw to the plate, but Tenney beat the throw, scoring with Bresnahan safe on first.

The game was cinched in the fourth. Seymour singled to centre; Devlin did the same; Mattern relieved Flaherity in the box for Boston; McCormick sacrificed, Sweeney to McGann; Bridwell singled to right, scoring Seymour. Ames singled, scoring Devlin. Tenney bunted safely filling the bases. Herzog singled to center, scoring Bridwell and Ames, winning the game.

Ames pitched today despite Mathewson's pleading with McGraw before the game that he be allowed to go to the box both today and tomorrow.

Mathewson will undoubtedly be in the box tomorrow, while Mordecai Brown will in all probability pitch for Chicago. The Chicago team left home for New York today on the 20th Century limited. Score:

New York	012	400 00x	7 13 0
Boston	200	000 000	2 8 1

Flaherity, Mattern and Chappelle and Bowerman and Graham; Ames and Bresnahan and Needham. Time 1:51. Umpires Klem and Johnstone.

Philadelphia, Oct. 7.—Brooklyn was defeated by Philadelphia in a light hitting game by 4 to 2. Score:

American League Games.

Washington, Oct. 7.—Washington won both games of the double-header with New York today 1 to 0 and 9 to 4, the first game going 11 innings. Johnson outpitched Warhop in the first, while Wilson was knocked out of the box in the second game. Scores:

Wash'n	000	000 000 01	1 10 1
N York	000	000 000 00	0 5 2

Johnson and Street; Warhop and Sweeney. Time 1:45.

Second Game:—

Washington	000	080 10x	9 8 3
New York	002	001 010	4 11 3

Witherup and Street; Wilson, Billiard and Sweeney. Time 1:50. Umpire Evans.

Boston, Oct. 7.—The baseball season closed here today with a double-header between Boston and Philadelphia, the home team winning the first by timely hitting and the visitors the second by bunching hits. Scores:

Boston	131	021 02x	10 7 1
Philadelphia ...	000	000 010	1 6 1

Cicotte and Donohue; Martin, Files and Powers. Time 1:56. Umpire Hurst.

Second Game:—

KERN AT PIEDMONT FAIR

Democratic Vice Presidential Nominee Heard by Great Crowd at Winston-Salem Yesterday—Denunciation of Trusts.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Winston-Salem, N. C., Oct. 7.—A large crowd at the Piedmont Fair here today listened to an excoriation by John W. Kern, Democratic Vice Presidential nominee, of "Rich Malefactors" and of Republican rule, which he declared led them.

Mr. Kern accompanied by J. Hamilton Lewis, of Chicago, who also spoke, arrived early in the day from Greensboro. Before going to the fair grounds, the nominee spoke to the townspeople in the Court House square. He ascribed to the great corporations, specifically the meat and steel trusts, iniquitous methods, which, he asserted, draw from every household and every farm in the land a stream of money to the coffers of the corporations. The Republican nominee, he characterized as a weakling who would be nothing more than a "sub-President."

The nominee was greeted by the tooting of factory whistles as his train pulled into the station. A squad of horsemen and a brass band escorted him to the square.

"North Carolina is in the last of doubtful States in the estimation of the Republicans, "said Mr. Kern. "In North Carolina it is contended that the high protective tariff is an inducement for your citizens to become Republicans, it being the assumption that you wish bounties against other citizens to benefit yourselves. I am now in the heart of the greatest tobacco producing country of America, but with all your enterprise the tobacco trust has gobbled up like an omnivorous animal, your products to hand them back to you at their own price for your labor and your products. It is this evil which we have met here to remedy and which throughout the Nation we are struggling to remedy as we are struggling against every other trust that feeds and fattens upon the necessities and the labors of Americans everywhere."

He referred to the fact that this locality was known particularly as the German settlement of this portion of the South and to the history of its settlement and spoke words of encouragements to the inhabitants who, he said, "protested only when denied the liberty of men and when oppressed by monopoly laws which denied free conduct and the right of self government."

Mr. Kern left later for Roanoke, Va.

Roanoke, Va., Oct. 7.—John W. Kern the Democratic Vice Presidential candidate, denounced in no uncertain terms before a big audience here tonight the participation of President Roosevelt in the National campaign declaring that he had brought the high office he occupied to the level of ward politics.

"When Virginians, in common with all Americans, reflect upon how the conduct of President Roosevelt in its fulmination of political phillippics, reeks with partisan bitterness and sectional denunciation," he said, "they must feel the degradation brought upon the office and the humiliation upon their countrymen."

Tonight's meeting concludes the joint Southern tour of Mr. Kern and Mr. Lewis. From here the former goes for a visit to a sister in the country near this city and then to West Virginia and the East.

AGAINST MOTHER-IN-LAW

Joseph Scarborough Had Ejectment Papers Issued Yesterday.

With evident malice toward his crippled mother-in-law, Martha Spicer, who assaulted him with her crutch after he is alleged to have cruelly treated his wife, Joseph Scarborough, colored, appeared in Justice Bornemann's court yesterday and had ejectment papers issued for ousting her from his home, but the matter came to a climax favorably for the old woman when the case came to trial. She produced in court a deed for the house in which they were living which she had conveyed to her son-in-law and his wife, containing a clause that the property was sold on condition that she make that her home for life-time.

Finding that his effort to drive her from his home was fruitless, Scarborough asked for a warrant for assault, but Justice Bornemann refused to issue the same, the evidence being insufficient to support the charge and the old woman was dismissed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Vereen.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Vereen, No. 619 South Second street, will tenderly sympathize with them in the death of their little son, five years of age, which occurred yesterday afternoon at the family home after a long illness with typhoid fever The funeral will be conducted today.

QUESTION IN BOTANY

Distinctions Between Evergreens and Shrubbery Combined With Freight Technicalities.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT

Suit of Jas. H. Scull Against Atlantic Coast Line is Non Suited—To Argue McEachern Suit on Petition to Remove.

Fine distinctions as between what should be defined "evergreens" and what should properly be called "shrubbery" combined with a mass of technicalities of freight classification in such a manner as to make an altogether interesting session of the Superior Court yesterday.

The case was that of James H. Scull & Co., of Cronly, N. C., against the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company for the recovery of alleged overcharges and penalty of $100 on a shipment of shrubbery from Cronly to Cincinnati, Ohio, during the holidays of 1906. The case has been to the Supreme Court once but was remanded to the lower court, on an error in the judge's charge, for a new trial. The case was taken up first thing yesterday morning and after a hearing lasting all day, the question in controversy finally narrowed itself down to a proper definition of the word "shrubbery," upon which one rate is prescribed in the freight tariffs of the railroads, and "evergreens," upon which a higher rate is charged. The plaintiff contended that holly and small trees and vines, severed without roots were shrubbery in the meaning of the classification, while the railway company contended that the higher rate under the classification reading "evergreens for decorative purposes" should apply. The plaintiffs showed that the bill of lading issued for the shipment read "pine tree shrubbery." A Webster's Unabridged Dictionary finally gave place to the mass of law books brought into court by the attorneys and upon an intimation of His Honor that plaintiff was not entitled to recover, the plaintiffs took a non suit and appealed to the Supreme Court. Several other cases by the same firm against the Atlantic Coast Line depend upon the issue in this controversy, hence the fight that is being made.

The plaintiffs are represented by James H. Scull, Esq., and Marsden Bellamy, Jr., while the railroad's interest is being looked after by Assistant General Counsel Geo. B. Elliott and Thos. W. Davis, Esq. A number of railroad officials appeared as witnesses in the case, among the number being General Freight Agent J. W. Perrin, Mr. A. C. Kenly, Freight Claim Agent A. H. Shepard, Comptroller Prince and others. Only $101.57 is involved in the case, but the other suits dependent upon the outcome of this case make it worth while for the railroad company to fight the case.

The jury empanelled to try the issues was composed of Messrs. W. S. Register, W. W. Wright, J. H. Hobbs, H. M. Millinor, S. W. Aman, M. C. Gray, W. M. Cumming, W. R. Smith, R. F. Warren, D. Wilborn Davis, W. H. H. Todd and W. B. Wells. As stated, the issues did not get to the jury, which was sent out of the room while the points of law and definition were being argued.

In court yesterday a motion was lodged by the defendant in the case of N. M. McEachern, administrator, against the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Co., to move the cause to the Federal Court, both because the amount asked for is in excess of $2,000 and the defendant company is not domesticated in North Carolina. The motion was by Messrs. Davis & Davis and John D. Bellamy & Son, attorneys for the railroad, but it will be resisted by Messrs. Bellamy & Bellamy and Herbert McClammy, counsel for the plaintiff, who as administrator of the estate is suing for large damages for the killing of the late Thomas B. Oldham by being struck by a train at the Castle Haynes county road crossing, near the city, several months ago.

Other cases disposed of yesterday were as follows: Sadie H. Cowan against Thos. F. Bagley, judgment; Hydraulic White Brick Co., against Lena Wessell, judgment for non suit; Jas. Robertson Mfg. Co., against J. A. Gregory, judgment; Johnson, Woody & Co., against Joseph Berbary, judgment; W. E. Worth, receiver, against G. E. Roderick and O. W. Carr, judgment.

The cases on the rearranged calendar today are Frank Herbst against Annie M. Nobles, Wilmington Furniture Co., against W. T. Mercer and E. S. Hancock and J. A. Taylor against C. S. Garrell.

Court took a recess at 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon until 10 A. M. today.

Dr. Pickard at First Church.

The series of meetings being conducted at the First Baptist church by Dr. Pickard, of Savannah, continue in interest and great work is being done in Wilmington by the pastor-evangelist. There are only two more days of the meeting and both the saved and unsaved are cordially invited to hear him either afternoon or evening or both.

A CALL FOR CAMPAIGN SUBSCRIPTIONS.

The Star will receive and acknowledge contributions to the Democratic National Campaign Fund in any amount from one dollar upward, forwarding same promptly to the treasurer of the Campaign Committee.

Thousands of good Democrats in North Carolina should esteem it a privilege to contribute their portion to the success of the party.

POLITICS IN KENTUCKY.

Political matters are about as badly mixed in Kentucky as in any other State, perhaps more so. The night riders in the tobacco districts, it is said, hold the balance of power and it is possible that they will go into the fight for the purpose of defeating the Republicans, because the present Governor, who is of that party, has been active in attempting to suppress their lawlessness, which was not the case with his predecessor, who was a Democrat. Governor Wilson has not succeeded in putting them down completely, but he has them in check, and life and property are not in such danger as when the night riders had full swing in their sections of the State. On the other hand there are many who denounce Bryan for the part he took in the former campaign and, strange to say of Kentucky Democrats, some oppose him because of his alleged anti-prohibition leaning. Then the Goebel murder has not yet ceased to play part in politics there. Taft's friends hope he will be strengthened by the fact that he has never interfered in the local politics of the State. So it can be seen what a political medley there is in the Blue Grass State, and it will be interesting to watch the unraveling of the tangle and the result of the election. It is not likely, however, that Kentucky will break away from the ranks of the Democratic national party. Her electorial vote has been cast for its nominee at every election except one. In 1896 Bryan received only one of the thirteen votes of that State, and this year you may count on his receiving all of them.

TURNING TO BRYAN.

And still they come—the new supporters of Bryan. It has come to be almost an every day occurrence for some prominent Republican to announce that he had made up his mind to support the Democratic nominees. The latest instance of this kind is such announcement by former Mayor James B. Furber, of Rahway, N. J., who was elected to that office on the Republican ticket in 1905. He is one of the leading business men of his city.

What is still more significant is the statement made to the Philadelphia Record by John H. Converse, of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, in which he said he had made a personal canvass of the men in the works and found them almost to a man for Bryan. He said to the Record:

"I was surprised, for I had supposed many of our men were Republicans. While I knew some were friendly to Bryan, I had not expected such a general sentiment in his favor. It opened my eyes to find that Republicans as well as Democrats were going to vote for him."

This is a pretty big straw which shows the way the wind is blowing. It shows that the wage earners have been made to understand the true connection between national politics and their best interest; that they are no longer being fooled by the Republicans' false claim that high tariff and their other policies work for the good of wage earners and that Democratic success would mean great injury to them. They are having their eyes opened to true conditions and the remedies for the present evil times. No longer can Republicans claim the wage-earners are going to vote their ticket as a matter of self-protection.

The case of the Baldwin works employes is not an isolated one; but the same conditions are developing in all parts of the country, and they make Bryan's prespects of election grow brighter every day.

TAFT'S TOUR OF THE SOUTH.

So Taft wants to tour the South, or rather some of the States of this section. The news comes to Washington from Missouri where Taft is, so says a Charlotte Observer special from that city, that he wants to make speeches in Tennessee, Kentucky and North Carolina in an effort to secure their electorial votes, but that the campaign managers do not take well to the idea, as they think he could do his cause more good elsewhere. It is said if he does come South his itinerary will be kept secret until it is too late for Bryan to change his plans so as to follow him. We do not put much faith in the report, for Taft surely knows that such tour would be a waste of time and energy. No doubt, as it is said, that, for the glory of the thing, he would like to carry some of the Southern States; but that is a glory he ought to understand will not come to him.

THE SOCIALIST PARTY.

The Washington Post speaks editorially of the "increased numbers and intense enthusiasm of Eugene Debs' followers" and says it cannot be ignored in view of the remarkable demonstration when he visited New York city recently and of the reports of similar character from States through which he has traveled of late. The Post says it would not be surprising if Debs' popular vote this year reached 750,000 and that som estimates go as high as 1,000,000.

That the Socialist party has had wonderful growth in the past few years is shown by its vote in recent Presidential elections. The vote for Debs in 1900 was 84,003. In 1904 it had increased to 401,380. This is rapid growth for a political party, and, according to the Washington Post, this party has by no means reached its full growth.

Can it be possible that there are as many dogs in this State afflicted with rabbies as is indicated by reports in the newspapers of persons being bitten by dogs with this disease? Hardly a day passes that there is not a news item in a paper of some person or animal being bitten by one. If this be so then there is almost an epidemic of rabbies among the dogs in the State, and it is time war was being made on the worthless curs which are given to roaming the country.

Colonel Walter R. Henry, who seems to be blue-molding for a fight (oratorical) with some Democrat, has to go no further to be accommodated. Mr. Walter Murphy of Salisbury, has declared his willingness to meet the gentleman on the stump in any county in the State. All Mr. Henry has to do to get his great desire is to accept the challenge and name the time and place. Now that the bluff has been called look out for some crawfishing.

The result of the regristration in two of the leading cities in Taft's State—Cincinnati and Cleveland—is not very comforting to the Republicans. There's a difference of five thousand in the former and ten thousand in the latter. No doubt Taft feels like giving up his Western tour and looking after things at home.

That is a shrewd proceeding on the part of the District Attorney to put Maj. T. J. Hains on trial first in the Annis murder case, thereby forcing the defense to show its hand before the trial of the brother who actually did the shooting. The principal witnesses in these trials will be the wives of the murdered man and of his slayer.

Congressman Sibley is not ashamed to have it known that for a number of years he has been closely associated in business with Archbold, of the Standard Oil Company. The public is less apt to be suspicious of him than if he had tried to conceal the fact.

Some of the October magazines, which were put to press in September, refer editorially to Taft and Foraker burying the hatchet and smoking the pipe of peace—rather nerve-racking reading at this time for the two principals and their friends.

CURRENT COMMENT

—Just now the San Francisco Call says Roosevelt is again having a "corking time" and "isn't he the broth of a boy." Just what he is, but why desire dignity and experience as recommendations for Taft when a "broth of boy" without either has made us a greater President than Washington or Lincoln?—Times Union.

—The Republican press is robbed of its priviledge of extolling the action of the American Bankers' Association for condemning Mr. Bryan's bank guarantee scheme by the fact that the convention which has just adjourned at Denver went further and placed the postal savings bank in the same class of undesirable legislation. The bankers condemn the Chicago and Denver platforms in their reference to these proposals with equal emphasis, so far as the news dispatches indicate. The orators of neither party can get much ammunition from the bankers' convention.—Cleveland Plaindealer.

—"Sunny Gene" Chafin, Prohibition candidate for President, promises to make Washington as dry as a lime-kiln when he gets in the White House. He got Carrie Nation's vote by making that promise, and earned the enthusiastic support of the makers of patent medicines and "cold tea"—such as every man brews in his cellar and carries in his his pocket down in Maine. But no wet goods dealer appears to be making preparations for taking down his sign. Even if Gene should be elected, Washington would still live in hopes, so long as he didn't appoint Carrie Nation chief of police.—Washington Post.

Some interesting details are promised to be developed during the court martial of Lieut. F. P. Evans of the navy, at Manila this week. Lieut. Evans is the son of "Fighting Bob," the rear admiral. The charge against him is that of intoxication and unbecoming conduct during the now famous cruise. He says that at the bottom of the whole matter is the unfriendly attitude of the "navy clique," which clique he proposes to unmask during the hearing. If the boy is like his father there will probably be some fun before the thing is over.—Savannah News.

—That the strike, or lockout, in the Manchester, England, cotton mill district will have a bearing on cotton market conditions may be easily imagined when the extent of the industry affected is considered. As many as 150,000 operatives are idle and 40,000,000 spindles are silent. How long this condition is to exist is problematical. The trouble was caused by the proposed cut of five per cent. in wages by the mill owners. This reduction the strikers refused to accept and the mills were closed down It is the largest industrial disturbance in many years, and is not calculated to help the price of raw cotton. — Charlotte Chronicle.

—Now Roosevelt's answered Bryan, and Haskell's answered Hearst; and every body's lyin', to see who lies the worst; and Hearst has answered Haskell and all the coal oil gang, and every one's a rascal who ought to go and hang. Now Kern has answered Sherman, and Sherman's answered Kern, and neither man has whiskers amounting to a dern, and Debs has answered some one and some one's answered Graves, and Hughes has bought a ticket that's good for seven shaves. And Taft has challenged Botkin to meet him in debate, and Mrs. Pinkham's answered the man who pays the freight. To all this answer business no ending do I see; I know it's got me rattled and batty as can be.—Empona Gazette.

—The American people are not only fickle in political matters, but at times they are emotional. Any serious mistake on either side might upset all its work and throw the election to its adversary. A single foolish speech, a violent declaration, the production of a few more bullet-doux might work destruction. A single phrase cost Baine the Presidency. Another phrase might work similar hav oc in this close contest. The skirmishing has been done in this campaign. The positions of the opposing forces have been defined. The pickets have been driven in, and the armies are face to face. From this time on only the big guns should take part in the fight. The weaklings, the raw recruits and the small-bores should be sent to the rear to make room for the long toms and the veterans. It is a battle from now on—a battle royal, between alert commanders and stubborn brigades.—Washington Post.

—Jacksonville, N. C., Oct. 6.—Hon. Charles R. Thomas, Democratic candidate for Congress, Third District, yesterday addressed the people of Jacksonville on the political issues of the day. It was a joint debate between Mr. Thomas and Mr. Walter Hill, of Goldsboro, Republican candidate for the same place. Mr. Thomas in his happy way discussed the issues of the day in a plain and forceful manner and made many votes. Mr. Thomas will no doubt go back to Congress with the largest majority that this people have ever given him. Mr. Hill is a bright young lawyer, young in public life, and made a good speech from his point of view.

By next Summer there will be an electric railway line from Winston-Salem to Vade Mecum and Piedmont Springs.

THE WHOLE MACHINE QUICKLY STOPPED

When Furnace is Out of Order Entire Plant Shuts Down For Repairs.

THE CAUSE EXPLAINED

In Fourth of Col. Dillingham's Lectures, Mr. Mills Makes Interesting Comparison Between Human Stomach and Factory Furnace.

Several thousand people were in attendance last night at the corner of Fourth and Castle streets on the occasion of the delivery of the fourth of Col. Frank A. Dillingham's course of popular lectures. A highly enjoyable concert and amusement programme was rendered by the band and the Plant Juice comedians which was entirely new as a different lecture and an amusement oill are given each night.

Col. Dillingham's lecturer, Mr. Alva A. Mills, is rapidly winning a high place in the esteem of the local public by his clear and forceful manner of address; his evident knowledge of his subject and ability as a public speaker. The lecture last night was devoted to the stomach, that intricate and delicately adjusted portion of man's anatomy that plays such an important part in his life and, too frequently, is involved in his death.

"The stomach is nothing more or less than the human furnace and boiler room," said Mr. Mills in illustrating the importance of this organ. "It receives the fuel in the form of food and converts it into strength and energy, and its slightest impairment is felt throughout the whole human machine. Man devotes too little attention and care to this important part of his system; he pays no heed to the stomach's signals of distress, but goes right ahead filling it with poor food until the stomach and digestion is injured beyond repair. Now, take the case of a similar department in a well regulated factory; the slightest indication of trouble in the boiler room and furnaces is followed by a complete shut down, and every effort is put forth to repair the damage. Indigestion, loss of appetite; the presence of gas, causing fullness and pains in the stomach and a feeling of pressure in the region of the heart; bad taste in the mouth; nervousness and loss of sleep are signals of distress from the human boiler room that should be given prompt attention; they are an indication that the furnace is out of working order, and that sufficient power and strength is not being furnished the other important parts of the human machine, and soon all is involved in general derangement and wreck."

Mr. Mills pointed out the unequalled record of Dillingham's Plant Juice in repairing disordered stomachs. Being of purely vegetable and herbal origin it is rightfully considered Nature's own remedy for the cure of disease. During the course of his remarks Mr. Mills mentionel the following statement received by Col. Dillingham from W. R. Manies, a well known resident of Charlotte, who says that Plant Juice cured him of stomach trouble and expresses his thanks for his relief:

"I have suffered with a severe case of stomach trouble for several years and have been unable to obtain any relief. I experienced all the pains and symptoms of this disease, which had ruined by health when I decided to try Dillingham's Plant Juice. I have taken three bottles and am now cured of this trouble. I have gained fifteen pounds since I began taking this wonderful medicine, and write to thank you for the relief it has given me."

The merit of the Plant Juice remedies in the treatment of diseases of this nature is rapidly becoming known in Wilmington and vicinity. Local druggists report a growing demand and a large number of mail orders are being received every day.

—Will Hunt, a Croatan wanted at Rowland, N. C., for the murder of a negro Saturday, was arrested at Florence, S. C., Sunday, by Officer C. W. Hewitt who will get a reward of $25 for his capture from the authorities of Robeson county. Hunt confessed that he killed the negro and was taken back to Rowland Tuesday morning.

It's Up to You to be our judge, Geo O. Gaylord's Stores have had their Fall opening, and extended the most liberal invitation to everyone to visit and inspect our stock, we will now leave the decisionin your hands Judging from the immense crowds that we had both days of the opening, and the number of pleasant compliments paid us on the wealth of merchandise that we had to show and from the way the ladies purchased their early Fall hats, we must pronounce our opening a great success. We say we are cheaper than other stores, not that we carry less desirable goods in style and quality, but there are many reasons why we can sell for less and one of the chief reasons that in this one store there are many stores, each department representing a store within itself. I wish to extend thanks for all the clerks and milliners in the store and myself for the very large attendance that we had, and now down to business. We want to sell you more good than we have ever sold you, and do it, yes, sure we will do it. Our customers have not been buying so many goods through the Summer, and now the 35,000 people that live in this city, and the 50,000 that live in the County need their Fall and Winter supplies. We have just the articles you want, the goods are new, the prices are right. Our Dress Goods Department has just been newly supplied with Panamas', Mohairs, Broadcloth's, Voiles, Peaudesoi Silks, Taffetas and Fall Percales and everything that is new and pretty in that department. Think! We are selling today 36 inch Henrietta at 25c per yard, today twelve months ago it was 50c, Soisete Silks, glossy and serviceable good enough for a queen and only 25c per yard to you. 54 inch Panama in Black $1.00 quality now 65c. $1.25 Peaudesoi Silks for $1.00 per yard today. Standard yard wide Percales only 10c. Beat these prices? No you can't.

Our Cloak Department and Tailor made suits has grown so big and strong we can hardly get room for them, just think what we can show you today a beautiful Broadcloth coat, full 50 inches long, made to fit perfect, trimmed enough to be neat, but not loaded with cheap trimmings, last season this coat would easily bring $12.50, today price is $8.00. The Swell coats that we have is some for the few that wants something that nobody else has got, and the kind that is a little better than her neighbors, the only thing that I can describe about them is the price and that is about $25.00 each. Now to the lady that wants a 54 inch coat that looks as good as a neighbors $15.00 coat let her come to us and I will sell it to her for $5.00 or $6.00. The styles, quantity and prices can not be described come and look at them. It does not take much pocket change to buy one, but they are reasonable for all to obtain. Our Tailor Made Suits is the talk of the town, we have won first place in this department from the beginning. If we have not got just the style you want and color you like and size you need why we will order it for you, and all we require is your word that you will take it when it comes. I can't tell it all, every clerk in the store sent a special message for you to come and see them. You know the place, of course you do, The Big Store on Front Street that gives away premiums every day, if you have not got it, get the habit and come early before the plumes are all gone.

Danderine

Grows Hair and we can PROVE IT!

DANDERINE is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful. It at once imparts a sparkling brilliancy and velvety softness to the hair, and a few weeks' use will cause new hair to sprout all over the scalp. Use it every day for a short time, after which two or three times a week will be sufficient to complete whatever growth you desire.

A lady from St. Paul writes in substance, as follows:

"When I began using Danderine my hair would not come to my shoulders and now it is away below my hips."

Another from Newark, N. J.

"I have been using Danderine regularly. When I first started to use it I had very little hair, now I have the most beautiful long and thick hair anyone would want to have."

NOW at all druggists in three sizes 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle

Danderine enjoys a greater sale than any other one preparation regardless of kind or brand, and it has a much greater sale than all of the other hair preparations in the world combined.

Cut This Out

FREE To show how quickly Danderine acts, we will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends this free coupon to the KNOWLTON DANDERINE CO., CHICAGO, ILL., with their name and address and 10c in silver or stamps to pay postage.

An Enviable Spirit

is that of the man watching another take a drink of our Liquor, and a "spirit to be envied" is that same Liquor. It is mild, delicate, delicious in flavor, yet has the right "smack" that afterwards gives the body a warm glow throughout. And it is the kind you will take pride in offering to a caller at the house—for he will appreciate it also. Try a sample and then hear our prices.

Now Is the Time to Advertise in The Morning Star

The Signal Gun.

[Original.]

When I was left a widow I took the only means of making a living offered me and went to Russia to introduce a typewriting machine, intending also to do copying. I hired a small room in St. Petersburg and advertised.

One morning a young woman came to my office and room and asked for employment, saying that she was a typewriter. She was about twenty-three years old, comely, but shabbily dressed. She seemed eager for work and offered in lieu of wages to take a commission on what work she would bring in herself. If there was not much in this for me to gain there was certainly nothing to lose. I engaged her.

The next morning she came to the office with manuscript sufficient to keep her busy for a week. She didn't ask what I intended to charge for the copy, but sat down at the machine and went to work. I found at once that she knew very little about typewriting. As to this she had deceived me, and I had a mind to send her away, but I didn't wish to lose the job she had brought in, and, as she said there was plenty of time in which to do it, I bore with her, showing her how to manage the machine, which was new to her. While doing this I noticed the whiteness, roundness and delicacy of her hands. I complimented her on them and noticed afterward that she persisted in getting them smeared with the ink of the ribbon and the dust and oil of the machine. From her hands I was led to notice her complexion, her figure and especially her foot, which was very dainty. Her ears, too, were small, a reliable token of breeding. Besides these features, there was a refinement of manner about her that did not accord with her cheap clothing. I told her she looked too aristocratic for her dress, and I was much puzzled at the way she received the comment. Instead of being pleased she seemed distressed.

Since she said there was more copy ready for her I worked evenings myself on the manuscript and at the end of the week it was finished. I made the charge 20 rubles, which she gave me before taking it away, and I handed her back ten of them. She seemed perfectly satisfied and the next morning was ready with more work.

She said she wished to work nights and to be near the machine rented a room in the same building as mine, in which she put a cot and a little cheap furniture. She cooked her meals in her room and after once being established there never left the building except at night.

One morning while I was typewriting I came upon a paper between the leaves of the manuscript. I handed it to the girl, and as I did so the blood left her cheeks, and she gave a little frightened gasp. She went on with her work without a word, but presently turned to me and said:

"You expect an explanation about the note. There is none. The secret is mine, but I am going to ask you to refrain from any mention of me or it to any one. Will you?"

"Certainly," I said.

On another occasion she said she had a headache and went to her room. She had not been gone five minutes before, wishing to ask her something about a manuscript I was copying, I followed her. I turned the knob, but found it locked. I rapped, and after some time she opened the door. She was white as a sheet. I did not ask for an explanation, and she offered none.

I used to talk with her about the tyranny of the Russian government and contrast it with our liberty in America. She said that there was as much liberty in Russia as the people were fitted for and did not seem interested in American freedom. But one evening when we were together a complete change came over her.

"You have been very kind to me," she said, "and I am going to give you some advice. I know I can trust you, for you are an American. Besides, you have no reason to betray me. Leave this country as quickly as possible. A terrible struggle is about to begin which will last for many years. You cannot succeed here in what you have attempted. All these manuscripts I have brought are mine or my friends', and I have paid for every one of them. My father, a noble, is in Siberia, and my mother died of grief at his imprisonment. I am one of the workers in the revolution about to be inaugurated, and the police are searching the city for me. Within a week the czar will bless the waters of the Neva. At that ceremony the signal for the coming strife will be given. Pack up your machines and ship them away at once and follow yourself as soon as possible. You must wait for a remittance? Don't wait for anything. Here is money to get you out of this country that will soon run with blood."

Thrusting her hand into her bosom, she drew out a roll of bills and gave them to me. I was too much appalled to even take them, but she put them in my hand and sped away. As soon as I could recover from my astonishment I did as she had bidden me, but did not get away before my employee's room was forced by the police to find the bird had flown.

Three days after my departure I read the news that at the ceremony of the blessing of the Neva a cannon loaded with shot had been fired into the czar's palace. It was the signal gun of revolution.

GERDES-ELLIS NUPTIALS.

Beautiful Wedding at St. Paul's Lutheran Church Yesterday.

The marriage of Mr. William H. Ellis, of Norfolk, Va., and Miss Katherine M. Gerdes, the accomplished young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Gerdes, of this city, which was solemnized yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at St. Paul's Lutheran Evangelical church, was pronounced by the large number in attendance to have been one of the prettiest of the many Fall weddings in Wilmington.

The church presented a handsome appearance, with its exquisite decorations of ferns, palms and cut flowers, the colors of green and white prevailing throughout. Rev. W. A. Snyder, pastor of St. Paul's church, performed the ceremony in a most impressive manner. Attending the bride as maid-of-honor was Miss Katherine Fick, and the bridesmaids were Misses Mary L. Smith, Lillian Bornemann, Katherine Bornemann and Katherine Kronke, of Brooklyn, N. Y. The other attendants were Mr. Henry Gerdes, best man, and the groomsmen, Messrs. Fred Tiencken, Carl Fick, L. M. Harvey and J. D. Doscher, Jr.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple repaired to the bride's home, where they received the felicitations of many admiring friends and left last night for Norfolk, where they will make their future home, and where the groom is a popular young business man.

Preceding the marriage a reception was tendered by the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. H. Gerdes to the prospective bride and groom on Tuesday evening, at which time they were the recipients of many handsome wedding gifts. Diversions were engaged in by the many invited guests and during the evening Rev. W. A. Snyder and Justice G. W. Bornemann responded with happy talks.

QUEEN OF THE RACE TRACK.

Wilmington Mare Won Stake Race at Piedmont Fair Yesterday Afternoon.

Wilmington admirers of fine horseflesh will be pleased at the news contained in a telegram from Winston-Salem last night stating that the fine little mare, "Queen", belonging to Dr. Morris M. Caldwell, of this city, won the stake race, carrying with it a purse of $600, at the Piedmont Fair in the twin-city yesterday afternoon. The race was won in a sensational finish before a large crowd at the track, being driven by her trainer, Mr. W. G. Ross. "Queen" is well remembered on the local turf and her admirers here will be glad to know that after completing the circuit in Greensboro, Salisbury and Columbia, S. C., she will be brought back to Wilmington for appearance again on the Wilmington track.

COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY.

Important Meeting Will be Held This Evening—Tuberculosis Congress.

An important meeting of the New Hanover Medical Society will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in room No. 8, Masonic Temple. At this meeting a report will be received from the delegates who recently attended the International Tuberculosis Congress in Washington, D. C. Among those who attended this great meeting were Drs. C. T. Harper, J. C. Wessell, Russell Bellamy and R. Harllee Bellamy. The delegates who attended this Congress were charged with the duty of inaugurating certain measures for their respective communities and all these matters will be discussed at length this evening. A full attendance of members of the Society is earnestly desired.

—The fire in the coal bunker at the Champion Compress was almost completely extinguished yesterday. However, a close watch is still being kept on the bunker and all the trouble is expected to be cleared up today.

—Several trifling cases were tried at the session of the police court yesterday, among the number of defendants being Nettie Williams, colored, on the charge of being drunk and down. She was given 30 days on the county farm.

—The interior of the store at southwest corner of Second and Princess streets, in the Garrell Building, is being handsomely fitted up for occupancy by Schutt's pharmacy. A very handsome soda fountain is being placed preparatory to the opening which will be announced later.

CARE FOR THE INSANE.

State Hospital Commission Awards $125,000 Contracts For Buildings.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 7.—The North Carolina State Hospital Commission, having authority from the last Legislature to expend $500,0000 in five years in the enlargement of the State hospitals for the insane and establish epileptic colonies, after being in session here all day and until late tonight, awarded contracts for ten additional buildings in connection with the hospital here, three colonies of three buildings each, on the tract, and one large fireproof building for convalescent women in connection with the present central hospital equipment. The contracts were awarded to D. Grandy, Charlotte. The colonies will be as far as needed for epileptics. Additional buildings will increase the capacity here to five hundred, making a total capacity of over 1,000.

The Commission also decided to provide additional accommodations at the Morganton Hospital for all white consumptives, two special buildings, one each for men and women, will be provided by contracts later, also two buildings for male and female epileptics. It was decided to provide four additional buildings for the colored hospital at Goldsboro, one each for male and female epileptics and one each for male and female consumptives. The contract went to J. F. Onge. The total cost of the buildings contracted for today is $125,000, being about all the money yet available for the work of the Commission. All members of the Commission were here.

DR. RUSSELL BELLAMY.

Has Opened Offices at No. 10 North Third Street.

Dr. Russell Bellamy, recently of New York, where he spent eighteen years, will open offices at No. 10 North Third street, between the Court House and the Colonial Inn. He will specialize general surgery and expert diagnosis and has been trained for consultation in the South. His telephone is No. 271.

From "Men of America," published in New York in 1908, it is seen that he was winner of first prize at Davidson Preparatory Medical School in 1890, won first prize before the State Board of Medical Examiners of North Carolina 1891, graduated M. D. as an honor man, New York University, Class 1892, won first place in Bellevue Hospital 1892, where he served two years on the House Staff, studied at the General Hospital of Vienna and University of Switzerland, spent nearly eighteen months as student in Europe, was instructor and understudy twelve years in Cornell University in New York City and New York University. Received an honorable discharge from the National Guard, State of New York, twelve years service; for several years was senior surgeon Squadron "A", "President's Own" New York Cavalry, rank of Captain. Was greater part of seven years in Surgical Department of Hudson Street Hospital. Has testified a number of times as surgical accident expert in the Courts, Federal and Supreme, in New York State.

No Decision in Townsend Case.

William Townsend, colored, who is alleged to have assaulted a white man by the name of Harry Thomas with a pistol, in front of the market house several months ago, was given a preliminary hearing yesterday afternoon in Justice Furlong's court, but no decision was reached in the case. From the evidence presented yesterday it seems that the defendant was justifiable in shooting at Thomas, who the witness alleged had a pistol in his hands and would have shot the defendant, if the latter had not shot first. Thomas was a stranger, and the affair happening several months ago, his whereabouts are unknown. The justice deferred his decision until today to make other such investigation as is necessary.

Radcliffe to Penitentiary.

Deputy Sheriff Harvey Cox will leave for Raleigh this morning with Charles Radcliffe, colored, who was convicted of manslaughter at the criminal session of the present term of court last week and sentenced to 30 years in the State penitentiary. Radcliffe will begin serving his long term immediately. Deputy Cox will return to Wilmington the latter part of the week.

The Theatre

As the first of a series of lyceum attractions to be given at the Academy of Music for the benefit of the children's playgrounds movement, Victor's Royal Venetian Band appeared last night and while the attraction was in every way an artistic success, it is greatly regretted that it was not a paying financial venture; in fact, the management of the playgrounds movement lost $100 or more on the guarantee that was necessary to bring such a large organization here.

The band gave a delightful programme of classical and popular selections and nearly every number was enthusiastically encored. The vocal solos of Miss Grace Keye-Miller were especially fine, she having responded thrice to encores of her first number, singing beautifully the third time, "The Rosary." Victor is less ostentatious than the average bandmaster but works earnestly without indulging in the grimaces and contortions so common to many conductors above the mediocre. His band admirably responds to his direction sympathetically and intelligently. The appearance last night lacked nothing save a "standing room only" audience.

This morning seats will go on sale for the production of the most noted play of the season, "The Devil." With this play the Academy of Music management does not have to advertise the play's Broadway triumph in the past, but can proudly hold it up with the present.

"The Devil" is now running in New York city and is packing the theatre nightly. It bids fair to run the entire season. So it is no second-hand attraction that comes to the Academy tomorrow night and then again it is the authorized Henry W. Savage version. This means much, as theatre-goers will at once recognize.

And fortunate indeed was it for the American actor that Henry W. Savage discovered in Europe Franz Molnar's wonderful Hungarian play, "The Devil." For, having launched the piece triumphantly at the Garden Theatre, New York city, and realizing that the play would run there at least a year, he has authorized a organization of a number of touring companies equally good and all by actors of established ability, under the direction of the well-known theatrical firm of James D. Barton & Company.

All new acts go on at the Crystal Palace today and will hold merrily forth for the remainder of the week. The same clever people will be behind the footlights, but they will make an entire change of programme and will present something new and bright. The "kids," Percival and Shields, will be seen in a new and up-to-date speciality introducing some swell buck, wing and clog dancing.

MISS DELUC.
Appearing at Crystal Palace this week in Vaudeville.

The Great Grey will offer a jolly, refined musical melange, Paris and Deluc will come to the front with a crisp change in the comedy sketch work line, and Hal Davis has a number of new songs and a barrel of new jokes for his fine blackface turn.

The Palace has done big business this week, playing to large audiences in the afternoons and to those of "standing room only" size at nights.

STORY THAT NEVER GROWS OLD.

South Will Never Weary of the Famous Ku Klux Klan.

The South will never grow weary of the story of the Ku Klux Klan. This is not surprising since this wonderful organization of mystic night riders forms an essential feature of the life of the South. Thomas Dixon, Jr., was the first person who told the true story of the Klan in dramatic form and his "Clansman" has now become a household word in the South and in fact throughout the entire country. In "The Traitor," a play equally as strong as "The Clansman" which will be seen at the Academy of Music, Wednesday matinee and night, Oct. 21st. Mr. Dixon, with the assistance of the celebrated dramatist, Channing Pollock ,takes up the story of the Klan where it stopped in "The Clansman" and follows it out in an intensely dramatic manner to the final dissolution. People who have seen the play say that it is so full of dramatic surprises that it will hold the undivided attention of any audience from beginning to end. So much has been written and so much curiosity prevails about "The Traitor" that it is sure to be greeted by a capacity audience.

FATE OF THE McCABE.

Schooner Lost Off Texas Coast—Capt. Bailey Known Here.

Capt. Jarman of the schooner Thomas F. Pollard, who feared the threatening weather and for the second time within the past month since he left Chisolm Island for Baltimore, has been compelled to seek harbor at Charleston, S. C., and this port, towed up from Southport yesterday morning. This is the first time in Capt. Jarman's career as a sea captain that he has been compelled to await favorable weather in southern ports.

He referred with much regret yesterday to the ill-fate of the schooner Beulah McCabe, which resulted in the loss of her crew and popular Captain E. P. Bailey, who had brought and conveyed cargoes to and from this port several times and was well known by the local chandlers. It will be recalled that the steamer Tiffis picked up a raft off Port Arthur, Texas, on which was one living man, the only surviving member of the crew of the McCabe.

Rev. Hocutt at Trinity.

At Trinity Methodist church, where a revival is in progress this week, Rev. W. E. Hocutt, pastor of Bladen Street Methodist, preached another interesting and powerful sermon last night, taking as his subject, "Results of Sin." A distinct feature of the revival was the after meeting last night which was well attended. A strong appeal was made for Christian service. Another of the series of services will be held again tonight at 8 o'clock.

Commissioned by the Governor.

Mr. J. S. Stalling, special agent of the Atlantic Coast Line who was recently commissioned by Governor Glenn a lawful officer in North Carolina in connection with his duties with the railroad, was yesterday formally sworn in by Justice G. W. Bornemann.

ANNOUNCEMENT

We are in our new and handsome Clothing, Furnishing and Hat Store.

212 North Front Street

Between Chestnut and Grace

We are going to make it the best store of its kind you ever stepped into. We realized some time ago that the putting up of a new and modern building in every respect was necessary to take care of our increased business and give the people of Wilmington such a store as their patronage deserves. If you are not already a customer we want to make you one.

It's worth something to have such a clothing store in Wilmington; if you don't find it out tomorrow you'll find it out later. You'll realize the advantage of a place where you can be sure of quality always, where you can count on getting your money's worth. You'll appreciate too; it' worth a good deal to any man to know that the clothes he wears are all wool; a good deal of clothing is being sold now-a-days that's mostly cotton, HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX are masters of style; the tailoring and finish is such as is not equaled by many custom tailors; even the highest priced clothes, to measure, seldom are as good; cheap tailoring is n't in the same class with them.

You'll find our Furnishing Department an "Eye Opener."

NECKWEAR, SHIRTS, HOSIERY, GLOVES,

and little fixings, the very best standard brands.

The new store itself is worth seeing even if you don't buy. Our great day-light first floor for Clothing is the best Clothing salesroom in the city. Drop in on us tomorrow; we'll be "at home," and every day after that.

DEMOCRATIC CONFERENCE

Bryan Meets Campaign Managers. Plans for the Final Weeks' Work Discussed and Outlined—He Confident of Victory.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Chicago, Oct. 7.—Plans for the final weeks of the Democratic campaign were outlincd and discussed at a conference between W. J. Bryan, National Chairman Norman E. Mack and heads of the various bureaus of the National committee today. The conference was held in Mr. Bryan's room where he rested for a couple of hours on his arrival here from Iowa this morning. Mr. Bryan told the National committeemen that he felt convinced that the tide was still running strong for the Democratic ticket. In a statement regarding conditions in the West where he has been speaking for the last two weeks. Mr. Bryan said:

"There is no State in the West where the changes are not in favor of our party and the reports that we get are not only encouraging, but they are increasingly encouraging; that is, the reports are more favorable now than they were one month ago, and one month ago they were more favorable than they were two months ago. Everything we hear from the East increases the confidence that the Democrats feel in the success of the ticket.

"I am standing this campaign excellently, in fact the best I ever have."

Mr. Bryan will leave here Friday, speaking in Joliet, Streator and other cities in Illinois. On Saturday Mr. Bryan will speak in Missouri, making addresses at Hannibal, Paris, Moberly, Kansas City and St. Joseph. The candidate will then return to Lincoln, and next week will speak three days in his home State.

PYTHIANS TO GREENSBORO.

Wilmington Will Send Big Delegation Capt. Robertson Chief Marshal.

As the date approaches the indications are that a large delegation of Wilmington Pythians will attend the Pythian Day exercises in Greensboro in connection with the centennial and home coming week on next Wednesday. As previously announced the Coast Line will operate a through Pullman to Greensboro leaving Wilmington Tuesday night for the accommodation of all who desire to attend from this section. Mr. C. C. McLean is chairman of the Pythian Day Committee and Capt. Wm. F. Robertson, of this city, will be chief marshal of the parade that will be one of the features of Pythian Day. Pythian headquarters will be maintained in the city and committees will meet all trains. There are four prizes for Pythian lodges of the State, first and second of $70 and $30 for visiting lodge having the greatest number of Knights in line; $25 and $15 respectively for visiting lodge having greatest number of candidates for rank of page in the parade; $25 and $15 for visiting lodge making best appearance as to uniformity of dress in parade, and a first prize of $20 to the lodge having the best float or special feature in the parade. These prizes are offered by the Grand Lodge and Mr. McLean writes that reports from the State are that the day will be the greatest in the history of the order in the State. There will be special degree work by the Grensboro lodges on the night of the parade. Each lodge is asked to appoint a chairman of its delegation and make report to Secretary G. A. Hood at Greensboro.

CASTLE HAYNES SCHOOL.

Handsome New Building Now Occupied in Prosperous Little Village.

The handsome new school building, recently erected in the village at Castle Haynes, according to plans and specifications furnished by the State Board of Education, was occupied this week by the school in that district and yesterday afternoon Supt. Catlett paid an official visit to the school in its new quarters, finding everything in good shape. Miss Nell Chambers is the teacher and 31 pupils are enrolled. The house is modern in every respect and was erected by private subscriptions from the Carolina Trucking Development Company and others with the aid of the Board of Education to take the place of the old school house, which was found to be away from the centre of population of the district after the great development which has been in progress at Castle Haynes during the past several years. All the country schools, Prof. Catlet says, are doing well and an increased attendance of pupils is noted in quite all the districts.

MR. BURGESS W. MARSHALL.

Wilmington Boy Appointed to Important Position in the West.

The friends of Mr. Burgess W. Marshall, who spent several weeks in Wilmington last month visiting relatives will be delighted to learn that he was appointed on October 1st to the position of Register of the General Land office of Bozeman, Montana, by President Roosevelt. Mr. Marshall reached Bozeman several days ago, going direct from Washington, D. C., and has assumed the duties of his office. There were many aspirants of the same political faith as the President for the position but it seems that he preferred the Wilmington man. The appointment was not solicited by Mr. Marshall and came to him as a great surprise. He went West with a good deal of reluctance, as he had already entered one of the Law Colleges in Washington and had hoped to spend the Winter in the East. As Wilmington boys generally do he made good in every respect and will probably remain to grow up with the great West.

REVOLUTION IN CRETE

Popular Uprising Amid Great Excitement—Island Declared Annexed to Greece and the Greek Flag Raised Populace Excited.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

Canea, Island of Crete, Oct. 7.—The people on the Island of Crete, stirred by the events in southeastern Europe, the independence of Bulgaria and the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina by Austria have arisenn and proclaimed a union with Greece.

The Turkish government has sent to the powers a circular protesting against the Bulgarian proclamation and asking the powers what steps they meant to take looking to the re-establishment of order in Bulgaria and the maintenance of Turkey's interests, wihch were guaranteed by the treaty of Berlin. Great Britain in reply to the notification of Austria-Hungary's proposed annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina has refused its sanction to this action and has practically requested the Austro-Hungarian Government to re-consider it.

Both Premier Asquith and Foreign Secretary Grey in public addresses touched upon the Balkan question, the former asserting that the British Government would not stand alone among the powers in its present attitude, the latter expressing the belief that nothing has happened thus far that would lead to a breach of the peace.

In Servia there is popular clamor for war against Austria-Hungary, and the Servian Government has issued an appeal to the powers requesting them to restore the statu quo, or else to grant the Servia compensations. Italy through Signor Tittoni the foreign minister, has demanded that in addition to the evacuation of Navipazar, Austria renounce the now protectorate which she has exercised over Montenegro under the Berlin treaty. Italy is one with Great Britain, France and Russia in counselling the holding of a conference of the powers for the purpose of examining into the complications that have arisen and, if necessary revising the treaty of Berlin.

AFFAIRS AT Y. M. C. A.

Membership of Gymnasium Classes Increases—The Night School.

The members of the Y. M. C. A. are manifesting much interest in the gymnasium classes, which are being organized by Dr. F. W. Burkhardt, the new physical director, and there is a continual increase in membership with each session.

The opening of the night school on Tuesday evening was with an encouraging attendance for the success of the work and the second session of the school will be held this evening. Professor J. B. Huff has charge of this department, and seventeen members have already enrolled.

The skating events at the Y. M. C. A. have been very popular this Fall, and another of these pleasant occasions will be enjoyed this evening.

SUPREME COURT OPINIONS.

Only Five Appeals Rendered at Raleigh This Week.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 7.—Only five appeals were disposed of this week by the Supreme Court with opinions and otherwise. The list follows: Walker vs. Venters, Pitt, no error; Poythress vs. Railroad, Vance, affirmed; Medicine Co. vs. Mizell, Martin, new trial; Fleishman Moris Co., vs. Robertson, docketed and dismissed under Rule 17 by plaintiff's counsel; Rux vs. Manufacturing Co., Halifax, appeal withdrawn.

Ejectment Case Postponed.

Litigation of civil nature brought by the Bear estate against Mr. William Tiencken, the barber, to compel him to vacate the building which he now occupies on Princess between Front and Second streets, under ejectment proceedings, was set for a hearing before Justice Bornemann yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, but was later postponed until today and transferred to Justice Furlong, for a hearing this afternoon. The contention is interesting and the case originated from the fact that Mr. Tiencken was asked to move from the building, the store having been rented to the Junction Restaurant, beginning October 1st. Mr. Tiencken refused to move and consequently the action was brought against him. Hon. John D. Bellamy appears for the plaintiffs and Col. A. M. Waddell represents the defendant.

Arrested Twice in One Day.

For alleged failure to obtain license and afterwards for alleged failure to abide by what hucksters' license permit, J. H. Woebse, a white man, was arrested twice yesterday and will be tried in the police court this morning for the latter offense. When Woebse was arrested yesterday morning he was released after purchasing license, having been arrested the first time by Market Clerk T. H. Johnson. On the latter charge he was taken in custody by Officer J. T. Smith, while selling fish under the shed of the Front street Market, which was a violation of the law.

Mrs. Mary E. Dulin, a prominent society woman of Washington, reported to the police last night that she had been robbed of diamonds and jewelry worth about $4,000. Mrs. Dulin returned today from her country estate at Broad Land, Va., and the theft was not discovered until she opened her trunk.

FATE OF TREASURE SEEKERS

Expedition in Search of Spanish Vessel Met Disaster.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Baltimore, Oct. 7.—Not lade with treasure from a long lost Spanish galleon as they had fondly hoped, but themselves cast away and rescued in the nick of time from the wreck of the once gallant cup defender, the yacht Mayflower, a dozen men were landed here today by the Norwegian steamer Hoppolyte Dumois after having passed through the terrors of the recent hurricane that swept up the coast.

On Friday morning, said Captain Hardin, the storm had grown much worse. Time and again we thought the yacht would turn completely over. Finally she refused to right herself. The rigging went by the board and six thousand pounds of dynamite we intended to use to uncover the Spanish gold when we should have located the galleon was thrown overboard together with other stores. We had nothing to eat, but canned meat and crackers, all the other food being water-soaked. Before day light on Saturday we sent up rockets and these attracted the attention of the steamer Advance of the Panama Railroad Line, bound from Colon for New York. She signalled that she would not leave us, but we later lost sight of her in heavy rain squalls. Hope seemed to go with her, but as we were beginning to despair, the steamer Ran, from Daiquiri for Baltimore, was sighted, and later that day, Sunda, , the Hippolyte Dumois joined the Ran and finally succeeded in getting a line aboard, and here we are."

TRIPLE VIRGINIA TRAGEDY

Young Farmer Near Norfolk Committed Terrible Deed Yesterday.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 7.—John W. Richardson, a young farmer living in the Lamberts Point section, today shot and killed his sister-in-law, Miss Josephine Cromwell, his father-in-law Beverly Cromwell, and committed suicide after he had killed his father-in-law's horse.

Following domestic troubles Richardson and his wife, a younger daughter of Mr. Cromwell, separated last Friday. Mrs. Richardson returned home last night. Miss Cromwell returning with the five-year-old son of the Richardsons' approaching the house today when Richardson rushed out with his gun and shot her twice. She fell dead. The father-in-law was approaching in a buggy when Richardson rushed into the field, met and killed him by blowing the aged man's face to pieces. Richardson then killed the Cromwell horse and returning to his farm yard blew out his own brains.

CASE AFTER CASE.

Plenty More Like This in Wilmington.

Scores of Wilmington people can tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills. Many a happy citizen makes a public statement of his experience. Here is a case of it. What better proof of merit can be had than such endorsement?

Joseph Vereen, 722 Dock St., Wilmington, N. C., says: Some time ago I strained myself while lifting and soon after my back became very lame and sore. I could not stoop without having sharp pains shoot through my body. My kidneys also bothered me and I had a constant desire to pass the secretions, particularly at night. I could get nothing to relieve the trouble until I purchased Doan's Kidney Pills at Robert R. Bellamy's drugstore. The use of two boxes stopped the pain in my back and corrected the action of my kidneys. I very willingly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

WATSON SPOKE IN ATLANTA.

A Bryan Campaignor Secretary of Cosmopolitan Club.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 7.—In the course of a speech here tonight, Thomas E. Watson, populist nominee for President said: "In the city of New York there is a club known as the Cosmopolitan club composed of negro men, white men and white women. The object of this club is to promote social equality and the intermarriage of the two races. In the early part of this year, this cosmopolitan club gave an elaborate dinner, at which negro men, white men and white women sat down to eat and drink on terms of social equality. During the banquet misceganation was earnestly advocated.

"The secretary of the club Rev. Dr. Owen Waller, a negro, and he is one of the Bryan speakers in this campaign.

"If the political importance of the negro is to be enhanced as Henry Watterson, Bryan's official mouth piece says it should be, how long will it be before 8,000 negroes will be feeding out of the public crib at Washington City? If the Watterson-Bryan policy of having a Democratic party complete with the Republican party for the negro vote is adopted, how long will it be before we have a negro in the Cabinet?"

THE GEORGIA ELECTION.

Brown's Tremendous Majority—New Election Law Carried.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 7.—Returns at this hour indicate that Joseph M. Brown has carried the State for governor by a plurality of between 60,000 and 80,000.

Mr. Brown's only opponent was Yancey Carter who ran on the Independence party ticket. Brown ran as a Democrat.

The most important question voted on outside of the Governership was that of the voting qualifications in the State. Returns indicate that the amendment to the constitution passed by the Legislature has been aproved This amendment makes a property owning qualification for all voters.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Charlotte Observer: Mr. John B. Bagley, a graduate of four years ago of the textile department of the Agricultural and Mechanical College, becomes director of the textile department of the Texas A. & M. College. Mr. Bagley is also a graduate of Wake Forest College.

—L. Gardner has been re-elected captain of Wake Forest team. The prospects are good in track athletics. All of last year's team are back, except M. C. Milton, and some of the new material is unusually good, some of the men having made records elsewhere.

—The so-called leper colony is an asylum or home provided by the State of Louisiana and maintained by it, where lepers are under the control of mild human regulations and receive regular and expert medical treatment, with the result that not a few patients have been cured and the condition of others ameliorated and improved, says The New Orleans Picayune.

—Fayetteville Observer: Deputy Sheriff Pate yesterday arrested a negro at Monroe's Mill in Seventy-First, charging him with being wanted in Cheraw, S. C., for burglary. He is now in jail. He answers the description sent out by the South Carolina authorities, which gives his name as Willie Williams. The negro denies that he is the right man and says that his name is Leslie Neill.

—Greenville, S. C., Oct. 6.—Sheriff Gilreath and party, in an automobile, have just reached the city with the negro, Johnson ,wanted at Greer, for an assault on a young lady music teacher in the public school. The posse has been hunting since Saturday afternoon and the capturing party came into the city with the negro in an automobile at a 40-mile clip today.

—Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 6.—On Monday evening the team belonging to Mr. L. E. Byrd, who lives near Broadway, N. C., got frightened at some bags of cotton near the road and ran away, throwing his son, Alva Byrd from the wagon, and the wheels passing over his neck broke it. The young man died at once. Alva was the son of a well known farmer through this section. He was eighteen years of age.

—Concord Tribune: Recreation Hall at Kananapolis is an institution that is going to prove no doubt a source of great benefit to the people of that town. Mr. Hatch, the director of the place, has arrived and will direct the institution to the best possible good. In addition to reading rooms and recreation hall the building is equipped with baths and a swimming pool, all of which go to make it a place of great benefit as well as pleasure.

—Wilson, N. C., Oct. 6.—Last evening after business hours one of the proprietors of the Enterprise Machine Company had occasion to enter the building after it had been closed for the day. Before inserting the key in the lock he heard some one moving on the inside. He sent for an officer and when the building was entered the fellow jumped in an opening in the floor and secreted himself behind one of the brick pillars. The officer fired in his direction when the fellow yelled out; "Hold on, cap'n; I'm helping to hunt for the black rascal myself." He was sent to jail.

—Charlotte News: Dr. S. Stirling Alexander, of St. Augustine, Fla., was in the city last night returning from Washington, where he has been in attendance upon the Tuberculosis Congress. Dr. Alexander said that he had not been in Charlotte in thirty years, and the changes made, he said, were wonderful. "I was here one time," said Dr. Alexander, "and slept in a grave yard. I was on my return after the surrender at Appomatox. I was a member of Mosby's rangers and I and several of my comrades, being outlawed, were making our way to the trans-Mississippi country."

—Tarboro, N. C., Oct. 6.—Cotton planters in Martin county were terrorized today when it was learned that almost every gin had been placarded by night riders stating that unless they held their cotton for higher price the houses would be destroyed. For the third time the Jefferson gin at Fountain was placarded Monday night and warned that if the gin was operated another day all the buildings would be destroyed. This is the first outbreak of night riders in eastern Carolina. A large percentage of these gins is being insured and local companies will appeal to Commissioner Young.

—Angier, N. C., Oct. 6.—The Republicans of Harnett, Johnson, Wake and Sampson had a rally and barbecue here Saturday. There were about 400 Republicans, Democrats, ladies and children present. Hons. A. A. Whitener and W. D. Briggs, the Raleigh postmaster, were billed to speak, but they did not show up. Several of the Harnett Republican candidates announced themselves; also Elder W. G. Turner and Dr. Matthews, the Republican candidates of the Fifteenth Senatorial district, made short talks. Then the big gun was that by Hon. J. C. Angier, who occasionally brought applause from the Republicans.

—Newbern Sun: Well, do you know that on yesterday somebody had the gaul and audacity to go right into open court while the Judge was sitting on the bench and the solicitor at his desk trying a case, the bar filled with lawyers and spectators, and in fact several hundred people were about the court room when a light-footed magician entered the legal arena and with his magic wan coaxed into his possession a suit case that was filled with blind tiger liquor, which was captured and was preserved as evidence against a number of men who now stand accused and are on the docket for the illegal sale of same.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 7.—The cotton market was higher today closing steady at an advance of 1 to 3 points. Sales 175,000 bales.

The market opened steady at unchanged prices to four points and improved during the day on covering and buying for long account which was promoted by the better tone of the Liverpool market more optimistic views regarding the Lancashire labor troubles, and reports of a firmer turn in the spot markets. The south was a less active seller and during the afternoon houses with English connections were buyers of the near months here, said to be covering shorts. There were slight reactions at times during the day, but the general tendency was upward and the close was within a point of the best. It was reported that bids wired south on behalf of New England mills were unchanged to 1-8c higher. The weather map showed favorable conditions over the south during the past 24 hours but the lines suggested lower temperatures during the next few days.

Receipts at the ports today were 41,376 bales against 65,538 last week and 36,442 last year, for the week 365,000 bales, against 338,122 last week and 241,529 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans were 10,497 bales, against 3,092 last year and at Houston 16,530, against 6,987 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet, 10 points up; middling uplands 9.15; do gulf 9.40; sales 1,317.

Futures opened and closed steady.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 7.—The drygoods market was fairly steady in tone today. Cotton goods are more active in the commission houses. Yarns hold fairly steady with the demand rather light. Knit goods and hosiery are in demand for prompt delivery. Silk piece goods and hosiery are in better demand for spot shipment and for spring. Values are low but they appear to be firmer throughout the market as a whole.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 7.—The political complications which have arisen in the Balkan peninsular threw a shadow of depression over the securities market today directly on those of Europe, while our own market came within its scope of sympathy. The influence was contested here with varying success but the modifying effect of the European situation on the efforts to support prices was very obvious. The foreign selling of securities converged on a number of stocks which have held a leading place in all recent speculative movements, and the sentimental effect of their weakness on the general list was correspondingly great. The improved tone of the local market after the hours for activity on foreign stock exchanges had passed was further testimony to the part played by foreign influences in the early movements. The abrupt relapse in Rock Island preferred from its buoyant rise of yesterday threw some discredit on what is regarded as an attempted new leadership of the speculation. The choice of stocks to form the medium for operations towards rallying the market fell on those of a lower grade and lesser price. Erie was conspicious and there was a steady and determined accummulation of United States Steel. The selection later of some of the Southern railroad stocks for similar operations gave the market some color of a distinctive movement in Morgan properties. The money market was not appreciably affected by the political developments abroad, call loan rates hanging near the level of the midsummer ease of rates. The closing tone of the market exhibited much uncertainty.

Bonds were firm. Total sales par value were $3,420,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales of stocks today 790,900 shares.

A FEARFUL EXPLOSION

An Immense Grain Elevator Was Blown to Pieces and Burned.

SPONTANEOUS COMBUSTION

From Dry Dust of Stored Grain Supposed to be the Cause—Eight Persons Killed and Property Loss of $400,000.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Richford, Vermont, Oct. 7.—With a concussion which shook the entire village, a large grain elevator having a capacity of 500,000 bushels, exploded late today, causing the death of eleven workmen and two women, who were near the elevator when the explosion came.

The explosion blew off the entire roof of the building scattering timbers in all directions, and almost instantly flames burst out all over the structure. Twenty-one men were employed in the building, of whom 11 are missing and undoubtedly perished. All lived in Richford.

Mrs. John Jelifore, who was walking with a companion along the Canadian Pacific railroad track close to the elevator, was burned to death, and an unknown woman who was with her was burned so seriously that she died later.

The elevator was owned jointly by the Canadian Pacific and Boston and Maine roads, and occupied by the Quaker Oats Company, of Chicago. The amount of grain on hand was very large. The flames, which are supposed to have started by spontaneous combustion in the dry dust of the grain, spread so quickly that the limited apparatus of the village was of no avail.

The heat set fire to a flour shed near the elevator and the shed together with 75 freight cars standing near it were burned.

Late tonight the fire was still burning but no other property was threatened. The total loss is estimated at $400,000.

WITHDRAWS FROM THE CASE.

Jerome Angered at Refusal of Judge to Move the Case.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

White Plains, N. Y., Oct. 7.—After charging that Harry K. Thaw was still a dangerous paranoiac and recently had threatened to kill himself, District Attorney Jerome withdrew from the case today when Justice Mills refused to transfer the hearing on the question of Thaw's sanity from Westchester to New York county. Thereupon Justice Mills declared that he would name two experts to examine Thaw as to his sanity between today and Saturday and settle the case upon their report on Monday.

The trouble began when Mr. Jerome declared that unless Justice Mills transferred the case he (Jerome) would take no part in it.

Judge Mills then refused to transfer the case, saying a trial of the of Thaw's sanity would not be a long one and would not cost the country much.

Mr. Jerome said that with such ruling of the court, he had no alternative but to withdraw from the case.

"It is your duty, I think, Mr. Jerome, to defend this action, said Judge Mills.

Mr. Jerome replied: "Again I must say I disagree with the court and I cannot remain in the case unless it is continued in New York county."

A sharp exchange of words followed, terminated by Mr. Jerome seizing his satchel and hat.

ATLANTIC BATTLESHIP FLEET.

Hampton Roads to be its Home Coming Port.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Oct. 7.—Unless the present plans of the navy department are changed, the Atlantic battleship fleet will come home direct to Hampton Roads. The fleet, according to the present plans, will remain two or three days in Hampton Roads for a grand review by President Roosevelt, then go to New York, to remain five or six days in order to give the men shore leave. The fleet will then go to Quarantine for target practice.

President Rosevelt is expected to review the vessels at Hampton Roads, which will comprise the greatest aggregation of American fighting ships ever gathered at one point.

Late reports from Admiral Sperry indicate that notwithstanding their long trip, the ships of his command are in good shape.

Allen O'Neill, the railroad agent at Nahunta, Ga., was found early yesterday shot three times in the head and dangerously wounded. He states that robbers had entered the office and after shooting him had robbed him and fled. A posse is in pursuit. O'Neill was taken to the railroad hospital at Waycross, Ga.

PEABODY BOARD GIVES SURPRISE

By Deciding Not to Distribute The Southern Educational Fund.

MEETING OF TRUSTEES

The Reason Assigned That the Conditions on Which the Peabody Normal College Was Established Not Complied With.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 7.—Surprise was occasioned today when the trustees of the Peabody Education Fund met in this city and decided not to make a final distribution of the fund of $2,500,000 left by George Peabody, of Massachusetts in 1867 for educating the children of the Southern States.

In establishing the fund the donor provided that the income of the $2,500,000 was to be used each year for educational purposes and that at the end of thirty years the trustees could distribute the money among such educational institutions as they should select.

At a previous meeting of the trustees, among whom is President Roosevelt, it was practically decided to make the distribution. In 1875 the trustees, believing that the Southern States were providing proper common school education for children of that section, established the Peabody Normal College for teachers in Nashville, Tenn. In the distribution of the fund it was intended to give $1,000,000 outright to this and apportion the balance of the fund among such other educational institutions as the trustees should name.

The reason given for not making the distribution today, it was stated, was tha' the Peabody Normal Colege for teachers has not complied with conditions stipulated by the trustees when the college was founded. The agreement was that to entitle the Peabody College to $1,000,000 when the distribution was made, appropriations aggregating $750,000 must first be made for the benefit of the college by the city of Nashville, Davidson county and the State of Tennessee. Joseph H. Choate, and Richard Olney, of the board of trustees, were appointed a committee to investigate whether this condition has been lived up to, and their report today showed that the city of Nashville and Davidson county have made appropriations amounting to $300,000 but the State has not yet made an appropriation. The committee was given to understand, however, that the legislature of the State which will meet next January, will probably make the appropriation. Therefore the trustees decided not to distribute the fund until some time after next January. If the State of Tennessee makes the necessary appropriation the trustees may call a meeting in February in Washington, and then make the distribution.

GOVERNMENT CROP REPORT.

Condition and Yield of Grain as Compared With Past Years.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Oct. 7.—The corn crop condition on October 1st was 77.8 per cent., spring wheat quality 88.1 per cent. Total production of spring wheat was indicated as 233,090,000 bushels, the yield per acre averaging 13.2 bushels. Combined production spring and winter wheat is indicated as about 659,030,000 bushels of 89.4 per cent. quality. The oat crop quality was 81.3 per cent., the production being 789,161,000 bushels with yield per acre averaging 24.9 bushels, according to the Department of Agriculture crop report issued today.

FEARFUL STORY OF WRECK

Captain Sole Survivor of Crew of 26 on French Ship.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

St. Pierre, Oct. 7.—A raving maniac after clinging to a dory plank fighting for his place with two of his dogs for 36 hours in the North Atlantic, the captain of the French three-masted schooner Juanita, was brought into this port today by the fishing schooner General Archamere, the sole survivor of a crew of 26 men. The disaster occurred last Wednesday night during the hurricane which swept northward from the West Indies.

The Juanita went down with all the crew. The captain was able to grasp a fragment of a dory and on this he kept afloat unt'l rescued 36 hours later.

The Juanita was owned in St. Malo, France, by Yvon Brothers. The shipping lists show that she carried a crew of 26 men.

The Servian ministry of which M. Velimirovics is Premier and Minister of Foreign Affairs, has resigned. A new ministry for National defense will be formed which will include the chiefs of the four political parties.

BRYAN AND TAFT BANQUET TOGETHER

Notable Meeting of Presidential Nominees in Chicago Last Night.

NON-PARTISAN GATHERING

Meeting of Rival Candidates New in National Politics—Banquet Given by Chicago Association of Commerce.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Chicago, Oct. 7.—William J. Bryan and W. H. Taft, rival candidates for the Presidency of the United States, met tonight at the fourth annual banquet of the Chicago Association of Commerce. The meeting is said to have been the first of its kind.

Mr. Bryan, having been in Chicago all day, was the first to arrive at the banquet hall in the Auditorium Hotel. Mr. Taft, having delivered a speech at the opening of the Deep Waterways Convention in the forenoon, went to Galesburg, Ill., to deliver another address during the afternoon and returned to Chicago tonight after the banquet was well under way.

Intense interest in the meeting had been manifested since it first be came known that the candidates were to meet in public, and every seat in the banquet hall was occupied when the first course was served, save only a commodious chair reserved for Mr. Taft.

An ear-splitting shout gave warning of the arrival of Mr. Taft. Mr. Bryan, in common with every one else, rose and looked toward the entrance. A huge frame, moving like a ship amongst a swarm of tugs, was moving slowly up the narow aisle between the tables. Those at a glance occasionally could catch a glimpse of a smiling face acknowledging greetings. A policeman in uniform and assistants in plain clothes, aided in the progress of the distinguished guest. Mr. Bryan who had ceased the destruction of some sort of a chop suey masquerading under a French name, turned his head slowly as his political rival drew near smiling slightly. The dramatic moment which had been anticipated with such deep interest was soon over. Mr. Bryan's hand awaited that of Mr. Taft. A single lingering pressure, a word or so which none could overhear, because of the tumult, and the Republican leader passed on to a chair at the right of Mr. Hull. The cheering continued for a minute or so after those at the speakers' table had taken their seats. At the first moment the noise subsided, Mr. Bryan, leaning to one side and smiling broadly asked Mr. Taft if he had had a good day.

This display of friendliness on the part of the two candidates stirred the crowd to renewed cheering and words were useless in the confusion. Mr. Taft stroked his throat for answer. Then Mr. Taft laughed and the applause increased. The speeches of both Mr. Taft and Mr. Bryan were non-partisan. This was in consonance with the wishes of the Chicago Association of Commerce which is a non-partisan organization.

When the last course of the dinner had been served, both of the distinguished guests were kept busy signing menu cards which were passed over the mat of orchids in front of their section of the speakers' table. Meantime the banquet hall remained in good natured disorder. The orchestra played incessantly but the music was almost drowned in the babel of shouts and songs. Through it all, the two candidates labored with smiling fortitude signing their names.

The tumult which began with the entrance of Mr. Taft lasted for 45 minutes.

Besides Mr. Taft and Mr. Bryan the speakers of the evening were A. C. Bartlett and Daniel R. Forgan. Mr. Bartlett was the first speaker and Mr. Forgan was sandwitched between Mr. Bryan and Mr. Taft. In introducing Mr. Bryan, President Hall said:

"As you look upon my distinguished associated, I am forced to resort to the familiar protestation of the perplexed lover, 'How happy could I be with either, were t'other dear charmer away.' The evolution of politics has brought to a comanding place in the eyes and regard of his countrymen, a citizen of Nebraska. His life has been a honorable progress from the day he received his degree from his alma mater to the hour of his choice as standard bearer of one of the great parties by legions of enthusiastic countrmen. With the principles of an American, he has sought and held leadership in a career of courage, fidelity and kindness. Millions accept his capacity, the energy of his service, the purity of his patriotism. Gentlemen, Mr. Bryan.

Presdent Hall introduced Mr. Taft as follows:

"In the fortunes of war we acquired alien and subject races. Our Government assumed to lead them to the lofty eminence of American civilization. For the accomplishment of this purpose, the President sent to the Filipinos a typical citizen and eminent counseller and a man with the courage of his convictions. He accomplished the high purpose of his mission winning both the confidence of his countryment and the love and gratitude of a nation to-be. Success and honor have crowned his every effort in an active life as citizen, jurist, peacemaker and Cabinet officer. Through all his career and in our insular possessions, he has stood for the integrity of his Government and the majesty of right. Gentlemen. Mr. Taft.

Speeches of the Candidates.

Mr. Bryan was cheered as he arose to speak. He regarded it as a good omen when we can lay aside partisan feeling on an occasion like this and forgetting the things that separate us, remember the things more important that unite us in bonds of common citizenship. He thought he could see signs of progress in politics. When he first began to run for President there were no occasions like this. He noted a larger charity, a broader liberality and a more kindly feeling than has sometimes prevailed in the past. He was glad to meet at that Board one who has been honored by his party with leadership in a great campaign and was glad to testify to his appreciation of his abilities and his virtues. If he was successful the victory will be the greater to won from such as he and if he was defeated the sorrow would be less to have been defeated by such a man.

Mr. Bryan recognized the importance of commerce, the second step in material progress. First comes production, then exchange. Without exchange production loses most of its value. Those produce need commerce and commerce cannot exist without production. Mr. Bryan then took up inventions and its relation to labor, declaring the labor saving machine rather a labor multiplying device, citing the instance of boats formerly propelled by oars and steam craft. He used this illustration to introduce corporation, declaring them a great step in advance, enabling people to do together what people could not do alone. But with every new step in advance, responsibilities and restrictions on corporations are necessary. He then discussed the difference between men and corporations, the one existing for good or evil for a generation only the other for all time; the one with a soul and the other impossible to endow with a soul. The man made to compete with the God made man. He took it that all would recognize the necessity of making competition between the natural man and the fictitious person sufficiently equal that the natural man may not be trodden under foot. To his mind the world's great problem is not to correctly the question about which he and his distinguished friend dispute; these are surface indications of a larger problem, the adjustment of the reward of society. Is there a measure of reward? He believed there is and the measure of it is the Divine measure; it is the law that God stamped on the world, that every citizen shall draw from society a reward proportionate to the service that he renders to society.

Mr. Taft spoke on the delays and consequent inequalitied in the administration of justice in controversie between private persons, delivering a Judicial address upon the courts and procedure.

With the conclusion of Mr. Taft's speech the banquet ended. The candidate's shook hands cordially and parted.
